

BOOK GROUP CATALOGUE INTERMEDIATE ENGLISH

2022

Plus helpful information for running your group

Welcome!

Thank you for your interest in the Book Discussion Scheme (BDS). If you are thinking about starting or joining an Intermediate English Book Group, we hope this catalogue gets you excited about reading, meeting new people, and improving your English.

An Intermediate English or ESOL book group is a great way to practise reading, comprehension, and speaking aloud in English. We encourage more than one fluent speaker to be involved in running a group (especially migrant and ESOL groups), so they can contribute to the conversations, share their perspective and/or answer questions about life in New Zealand.

About BDS

The Book Discussion Scheme is a non-profit organisation. We are the only nationwide organisation in New Zealand that specialises in book groups/clubs. We were established in 1973.

How it works

We lend books and discussion notes to book clubs. The books listed in this catalogue are suitable for people who want to read shorter and easier-to-read books in English. The reading level of each book is listed.

Each month we supply groups with a title of their choice from this catalogue. We also send out a set of questions to help start conversation. Everyone in a group gets a copy of the same book and a set of questions. Members have one month to read each book before meeting to discuss it and receive their next book.

Programme costs

The cost of an Intermediate English membership is $15 per person. This includes:

- 10 sets of books and questions (one book per month for 10 months, excluding Dec/Jan)
- Delivery anywhere in New Zealand

Return postage is the responsibility of the group. We sell subsidised track and trace courier bags for this purpose. Contact bds@bds.org.nz to order.

Membership is to be paid in full when you register your group. If additional members join your group during the year, they pay $1.50 for each book you have yet to read.

Volunteer convenors/organisers do not need to pay the membership fee.

How to start

A group can start at any time of the year, but the BDS office closes for Christmas/New Year.

- Gather up to 12 members for your group. There is no minimum. You can advertise for more members on the BDS website's interactive map at www.bds.org.nz/join
- Complete and return the Intermediate English/ESOL registration form included in this pack, or request one by emailing bds@bds.org.nz. Full payment is required upon registration.

Helpful info...

Care of books

Book groups are responsible for the care and security of books and questions while on loan from the BDS. Please keep books clean, dry and free of damage.

The group convenor/organiser is responsible for contacting BDS, handing out the books, and returning books to BDS on time.

Keeping track of books

On the back of each book in the scheme is a sticker with a unique barcode. To keep track of who has what book, we suggest each person's name is written beside the relevant barcode number on the consignment note that will arrive with each book parcel.

Loan period

Groups meet on a regular day each month, for example, the second Wednesday of the month. Books are due back to the BDS office within 7 days of the meeting when you discussed the book. This due date is printed on the consignment note.

Reviews and comments about BDS books

We encourage feedback on books in the scheme. You can write comments at the bottom of the consignment note or online by logging into the convenor section of the BDS website. See bds.org.nz/review for further info and instructions.

Don't miss out!

- Be the first to know when a new title hits our shelves
- Read thoughtful book reviews from BDS staff
- Get notifications about reading and writing events happening in your part of the country
- Receive special offers, freebies and prizes exclusive to BDS members and followers
- And connect with readers around Aotearoa New Zealand as we share stories of how books and book clubs are challenging perspectives, opening minds and enriching lives.
